Coaching Team

Jimmy Young

Is a truly inspiring Coach. He is a NISA Level 5 Coach. He has coached numerous Olympic competitors from many countries including Britain, Austria and Japan. He has worked with many famous coaches Betty Callaway, Tamara Tarasova, Natalia Linichuk and Murielle Boucher. Has had couples place 3rd in Europeans and 5th in Worlds, alongside many Junior and Senior national champions in Finland, Sweden, Austria, Japan, Germany and of course Great Britain. And in Jimmy's words 'also had the pleasure of coaching Jason, Helen and Daniel'. Alongside coaching, Jimmy was also an ISU Technical Specialist (now retired), he officiated at two Junior World Championships and many Grand Prix's for both Junior and Senior.

Jason Blomfield

Was taught and inspired by Jimmy Young and went on to compete at both Europeans and World Championships in Ice Dance. Since then he has gone on to become a NISA Level 3 coach who has trained many British Champions. His love of Ice Dance and the exquisite technical ability make him a very popular coach and mentor.

Helen Prior

Former International competitor taught by Jimmy Young and Peri Horne, Helen is a NISA level 3 coach and Gold Test Medallist, who has trained National champions and international competitors. She is also an ISU Technical Specialist and holds a Diploma in Fitness Consultancy & Sports Therapy.

Daniel Smith

A former British national and international Ice dancer also coached by Jimmy along with Jason. Based in central London, he has been coaching since 2003 and enjoys working with skaters of all levels. His students have enjoyed success at club and national level in both free skating and ice dance. Recently one of his students became the 2015 British Junior Solo Dance Champion.
